THOMAS

The following data relative to the Thomas family taken from "Gregg's History of the Old Cheraws" by Bishop Gregg pastor St. Davids Episcopal Church, Cheraw, S. C. (written about 1820 to 1830)

TRISTRAM THOMAS emigrated from Wales to the Province of Maryland in the early part of the last century. He died on Feb. 11th. 1746, leaving a numerous family, some emigrated to Penn., some to Virginia, his eldest son, Stephen went to North Carolina about 1750 and died there, leaving a large family, several of his (Stephen's) sons and daughters subsequently came to the Pedee, (S. C.) of whom a portion removed soon after the Revolution to the then north-west territory (Tenn.) This family was of the Society of Friends, while in Marlborough they worshiped near Adamsville (Piney Grove) S. C.

STEPHEN THOMAS died in N. C. as above stated. Children as follows; Sarah, Robt., Stephen, Mary, William, John, Susan, Elizabeth, Lewis, Tristram, Philemon, Benjamin, and James, born between years 1731-1758 inclusive. Robert the eldest son married Mary Sands in 1756, he died at the age of 84, was a preacher for fifty years, changing from the Friends to Baptist. Lewis the second son married a Miss Breeden, a name long known in Marlborough.

General TRISTRAM THOMAS married MARY HOLLDENSWORTH of a Welch family. He was the seventh son of Stephen Thomas, and born July 28, 1752, though but a few years past his maturity when the Revolution began, he became a prominent leader. His children were Tristram Jr. went to Tenn; James married Mary Davis; Elizabeth married Joseph Burch Jr.

Bishop Gregg in his History of the Old Cheraws says;

"Tristram Thomas was a name respected and honored by all classes on the Pedee. General Thomas was modest and retiring in disposition, but firm and decided whenever principal was involved in the conduct of life. Sturdy by habit, and resolute in character, he was happily fitted by nature for the perils and labors of the Revolution. Possessed of a solid understanding, a practical turn of mind, and virtuous principals, he faithfully discharged the duties incumbent upon him in every station to which he was called in the councils of the State. He was the first Brigadier General on the Pedee after the war 1794. He lived to a good ripe old age, universally esteemed, and died at his residence at Ellerbe's Mills between Society Hill and Bennettsville in Marlborough Dist. In 1817."

"St. David's Society"

Jan. 31, 1778, for establishing a school to teach Latin, Greek, and other branches of learning in St. David's Parish, Philemon Thomas 25 pounds, Tristram Thomas 55 pounds.
